Title of Training:
WRITE YOUR WEEKLY SUMMARY IN SIMPLE, CLEAR LANGUAGE. It should include the following points (but not limited to): 1. Overview of the Week: Write what the training was mainly about this week. 2. Tasks You Performed: Mention the activities, practical tasks, or work you were involved in. 3. Skills You Learned: Include both technical skills (tools, equipment, software) and soft skills (communication, teamwork, discipline). 4. Observations: What you observed in the workplace or department. Any processes or techniques you saw. 5. Challenges Faced: Write if you faced any difficulty and how you tried to solve it. 6. Overall Learning: Summarize what you learned and how it helped you understand real-life work.
Sign of Head / Supervisor / In-charge: Seal of Organisation

Note: The format provided here represents the weekly summary that students must submit as part of their Skill-Based Training documentation. In addition to this weekly summary, students are required to maintain a detailed daily logbook throughout the entire training period. The daily log should include following (but not limited to):

- Tasks performed each day
- Observations and learning outcomes
- Tools, equipment, or software used
- Interactions with mentors or supervisors
- Any challenges faced and how they were addressed

Maintaining an accurate and complete daily log ensures proper documentation of the student's involvement, reflects their professional discipline, and supports evaluation by both institute and industry mentors.
